

I strongly oppose any action that weakens New Jersey's Do Not Call Law. I urge the FCC to respect states' rights to honor the wishes of their citizens to ensure telephone privacy from telemarketers seeking loopholes to inconvenience their lives. Marketers have other means of advertising to solicit our business. Past business relationships should not be cause for harassing and exploiting us.